

Primary Workshops:
Numeracy

Preferred Pre-requisites:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teaching a 1:1 iPad programme • Attended 'Getting Started with iPad workshop' • Completed Apple Teacher: iPad and Numbers • Signed up to Apple Education Community
Duration	90 minutes
Who is this workshop for:	Primary school staff teaching mathematics (P-6)
Presenters:	Our workshop facilitators are qualified and experienced teachers who are also certified Apple Professional Learning Specialists (APLS)
What we will cover:	Join our hands-on workshop and learn how to best use iPads to teach math to K-6 students. Discover tools and techniques that align with SCISA and Australian Curriculum outcomes, and receive practical strategies to enhance your students' learning. Examples and resources will be provided for early, middle, and senior classes.
Focus	Mathematics: K-6 Topics covered Using Units of Measurement: (ACMMG019), (ACMMG020) Location and Transformation: (ACMMG090), (ACMMG091) Probability and Statistics: (ACMSP144), (ACMSP145), (ACMSP146), (ACMSP147), (ACMSP148)
What you will take away	Practical skills and resources to use in your classroom linked with specific curriculum outcomes.
Cost	$500
Numbers	Up to 30 staff
Bring:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • iPad • Apple Pencil or stylus (if you have one) • Latest iPad OS • Apple ID
Installed:	Numbers, Keynote, Clips

For more information visit our website or scan the QR code

 Professional Learning Specialist

Are your teachers and children getting the most from their iPad?

Workshop: “Primary: Numeracy” will empower and transform the way you use iPads to teach maths and how your students can learn maths in the classroom.

-  Active
-  Personal
-  Collaborative
-  Relevant
-  Creative

Scan QR Code to register your interest

REGISTER NOW